MENU & WINE LIST

The smuggling history of the Ship Inn is literally ingrained in the fabric of the building whose central core is more than 500 years old. There are many hidden passageways and hiding places some only discovered very recently. The Inn features in Russell Thorndike's Dr Syn stories, where many of his characters and plot were imagined. Some of the Ship Inn's many famous guests over the years include, H G Wells, Athene Sayer, E M Forster, Rudyard Kipling, Edith Nesbit, George Bernard Shaw and Noel Coward. They all came to Dymchurch under the wall and found something very special, we hope you do too.
