Our First Year...

After taking on the pub last December 2010, we have successfully developed the pub into a welcoming home for all. Our 8 bed and breakfast rooms are slowly undertaking a wonderful transformation, with new colour schemes being implemented through out. Inc. the restaurant and the games area which consists of a pool table and darts with relaxed seating for families to enjoy. The garden was a hit with BBQ's in the summer which was enjoyed by many. 2012 we will be celebrating the olympics and the queens jubilee here. We can now cater for all party types, from christenings to Weddings in our 50 seater restaurant or our Bowery hall which can host 150 guests and holds weekly bingo with cash prizes. Our greatest achievement is winning the KM 2011 Tasty food award which was voted for by you – our customers. Thank you for all your support, we welcome any suggestions to help improve further.

Our 8 rooms are slowly undertaking a lovely transformation with new colour schemes being implemented throughout. This includes the Restaurant and Games area which consists of a Pool table and Darts with relaxed seating area for families to enjoy.

The Ship Inn

The smuggling history of the Ship Inn is literally ingrained in the fabric of the building whose central core is more than 500 years old. There are many hidden passageways and hiding places some only discovered very recently. The Inn features in Russell Thorndike's Dr Syn stories, where many of his characters and plot were imagined. Some of the Ship Inn's many famous guests over the years include, H G Wells, Athene Sayer, E M Forster, Rudyard Kipling, Edith Nesbit, George Bernard Shaw and Noel Coward. They all came to Dymchurch under the wall and found something very special, we hope you do too.

Elaine, Gary & The Team
Welcome You.
